

2019

The Library Updates team wishes you a Happy New Year 2019! We sincerely hope our readers will continue supporting us by using our library and resources more often. There's so much to see and do. Come visit us today!

e-Book Reader

eBooks and eBook readers are popular in developed countries. The delivery cost of good quality books using Amazon Kindles are notably quicker and at lesser cost.

The University of Malaya Library is offering its users the opportunity to sample this increasingly popular technology. UM Library Kindles are preloaded with Bestsellers, Popular, Motivational and Inspirational titles and more. Current library students and staff are eligible to borrow a Kindle for two weeks. Za'ba Collection Za'ba Memorial Library houses a special personal collection of the renowned Malay scholar, Tan Sri Zainal Abidin bin Ahmed or Za'ba. His personal collection includes 3,175 titles comprising works in Romanised and Jawi scripts pertaining to Malay culture, Arabic language and Islamic studies.

We welcome researchers to explore this collection. See more

Book Club

All campus residents are invited to set up book clubs. The facilities provided are:

- Books proposed by club!
- Increased loan and time for members only!
- Spacious reading space on all Library networks!
- Library to host activities of the club

To facilitate coordination of this Book Club campaign, interested parties may register their clubs with the project coordinator, Ratnawati Sari Mohamad Amin at ratna@um.edu.my.
